Tis education forms the common mind; just as the twig is bent, the tree s inclined. Education is largely the motor of progress and civilization. Its function is to refine and ennoble all within its scope. It redounds to the honor of the State. It is the bulwark of civil liberty. Not only is it of the greatest utility in all the various affairs of life, but, as Cicero eloquently says: It is the food of youth; the delight of old age; the ornament of prosperity; the refuge and comfort of adversity; a delight at home, and no hindrance abroad; it is a companion by night, and in travel, and in the country. The beautiful and inviting site of this University, surrounded by extensive and fertile valley lands, with majestic mountains...
