Createspace, United States, 2011. Paperback. Book Condition: New. 216 x 140 mm. Language: English . Brand New Book  Print on Demand .My recently re-written (at the beginning of 2011) software program: SelfAdapINDXWeeklyCndrs, evolved during the last 6 years of trading weekly options. The evolution simplified the software user interface. The NEW Weekly Condor Trading Software focuses on selecting the best 2SigMaxMin Condors from SPX, OEX, and SPY, that is, the one with the greatest potential weekly profit. In a few short minutes the software allows the trader to choose the best Condor to trade for the greatest weekly profit I trade using software I have written using Microsoft s Excel. Recently a reader has used my software on a Macintosh computer. Everything seems to work the same except when copying the CBOE Quotes, an extra blank row appears above the data. One way to solve this problem for Mac computer owners is to add ONE to the formulas (in the formula bar at the top of the screen) in the cells referring to the NOW columns in the Condor sheets for the Call spread rows and then for the Put spread rows. Example = D57 - D58 would have to be changed to D58- D59. The wild market swings (such as caused the May 2010 Flash Crash) have compelled the SEC to introduce required procedures to reduce these wild swings. The 2SigMaxMin Condors help the trader to make weekly profits in spite of what volatility remains after the new SEC procedures Each trading week the trader should select on Friday the best weekly options Condor to open the next Monday which will expire the following Friday expiration. The book explains what the trader must do if the short Call or short Put becomes ITM (In The Money). The trader...
