When we get caught up in the busy-ness of our lives, our prayers tend to focus on asking God to solve our problems or help us get something we need. But God is with us every step of the way, so he's already aware of what's on our mind. To understand our role in God's plan, we must deepen our relationship with him. The prayers and reflections in On a Bench of Wood will strengthen your awareness of God's grace and help you understand that no matter how much you want him, he wants you even more.
