In her fifty-ninth bestselling novel, Danielle Steel tells an unforgettable story of survival.of how two people who lost everything find hope.and of the extraordinary acts of faith and courage that bring and keep families together. On a windswept summer day, as the fog rolls across the San Francisco coastline, a solitary figure walks down the beach, a dog at her side. At eleven, Pip Mackenzie s young life has already been touched by tragedy; nine months before, a terrible accident plunged her mother into inconsolable grief. That is, until she meets artist Matt Bowles, who offers to teach the girl to draw and can t help but notice her beautiful, lonely mother. At first, Ophelie is thrown off balance by her daughter s new companion until she realizes how much joy he is bringing into their lives, despite the sadness she sees in his eyes. As their newfound friend works his...
