As the two lines are being recited, the children representing the cat and the fiddle stand up at their seats and bow. As the words, The cow jumped over the moon, are recited, the child representing the moon, stooping down, holds out a round piece of pasteboard, a piece of paper, or anything else that happens to be handy, even a book will serve, and the cow, steps or jumps over it. At the words, The little dog laughed to see such sport, the little dog laughs. At The dish ran away with the spoon, the two children representing dish and spoon take hold of hands and run across the room. Then other children may be selected for the various parts, and the game may be played thus again and again.
