Language: English Brand New Book  Print on Demand .Bradford Lyttle was born in the Hyde Park neighborhood of Chicago, and has lived there most of his life. His father was a Unitarian minister and professor of church history. His mother taught design in a Jersey City high school. Bradford attended Earlham College and the University of Chicago, where he obtained an M.A. in English Literature. For a time, he conducted a business designing and manufacturing medical equipment. A conscientious objector to war, he spent nine months in a federal penitentiary for non-cooperation with the draft. After being released, he decided to spend the rest of his life working in the peace movement. To give himself background for this work, he traveled around the world studying peace organizations and movements. He then worked in the Chicago peace program of the American Friends Service Committee After that, he worked with the Committee for Nonviolent Action, helping to develop projects opposing Atlas land-based nuclear missiles, and Polaris sea-based missiles. He then coordinated the San Francisco-to-Moscow Walk for Peace, and the Quebec-to-Guantanamo Walk for Peace. He worked with several anti-Vietnam War organizations, including the National Mobilization Against the War in Vietnam, the New Mobilization Against the War, and the Peoples Coalition for Peace and Justice. While taking care of his elderly parents for 17 years, he studied political science at the University of Illinois in Chicago and the University of Chicago. While at the UofC, he developed a mathematical probability model that proves that the failure of nuclear deterrence approaches certainty. The model led him to found the United States Pacifist Party, and run several times for President under its auspices. After his parents deaths, he participated in...
