Organization for Economic Co-operation and Development (OECD), France, 2001. Paperback. Book Condition: New. 229 x 162 mm. Language: English . Brand New Book  Print on Demand .What keeps governments awake at night? - How can governments best prepare themselves for current and future reform challenges? - How can a public sector develop a culture responsive to change? - What types of leaders are needed? - How can governments better communicate with citizens? - How can governments avoid reform fatigue ? In the face of challenges and opportunities posed by globalisation, rapidly evolving technologies, changing demographics, rising citizen expectations, and competition from the private sector, governments need to continue to explore and exploit new ways of working. This book (based on the proceedings of the OECD Symposium Government of the Future: Getting from Here to There) looks at the way public administrations have been reformed over the last two decades and draws lessons for a new generation of reform.
