

Don't Come Crying Home: A Boy's Life in Dr Barnardo's Homes

By William Fell- Holden

Troubador Publishing. Paperback. Book Condition: new. BRAND NEW, Don't Come Crying Home: A Boy's Life in Dr Barnardo's Homes, William Fell- Holden, At age two, one December day in 1943, Eric is handed over to a stranger, the Reverend Brightman. The Reverend is here to help Eric's unmarried mother, who cannot keep Eric as she has to work in the cotton mills. Across war-torn Britain, a bawling and exhausted Eric is taken on a long train journey, finding relief only in snatches of sleep. The traumatised child is handed over to another stranger and delivered within the grim walls of Aqualate Hall, in the countryside of Shropshire. It is the first in a long line of Barnardo Homes he must call home. "You're a bastard!" snaps Matron, slapping him. Eric does not cry. He now knows that he must always hide his feelings if he is to retain his humanity. Eric's progress is recorded by his caregivers and indicates that he is labelled early on as 'backward' and 'spiteful'. Yet Eric has his own story to tell. That of a life growing up in the rich countryside, full of childhood escapades, hobbies and the joys of nature; and of the imagination...
